

Desktop

The desktop version of the Front website features a top navigation bar with links for Home, Resources, Learn, Pricing, and About. A prominent banner at the top reads "Empowering teams with the freedom Over the limited power of the web developers". Below the banner, there's a section titled "Key benefits" with four categories: Responsive, Customizable, Premium, and Documentation. A testimonial from "Hulu&Netflix" is displayed, followed by a "Why Front?" section with a map of various components and a testimonial from "Christina May". The "Pricing" section shows a plan starting at $59/mo. At the bottom, there's a "Hire us" form and a footer with social media links and a "Privacy & Help" link.

768px

The 768px wide screen shows a slightly compressed version of the desktop layout. The "Key benefits" section and the "Why Front?" map are visible, along with the testimonial and pricing information. The "Hire us" form is also present.

375px

The 375px wide screen displays a highly compressed and mobile-optimized version of the website. The "Key benefits" section and the "Why Front?" map are partially visible, and the "Hire us" form is the most prominent feature.
